Meeting called to order at 7:00 PM

Maureen began with a question of whether we should alter our Covid-19 Policy. Some riders were concerned seeing photos of riders not wearing masks. It was decided that at present our policy will not change.

Website Coordinator- Ed Sobin stated that he is retiring from this position. David Jendras to lead an IT committee session by new board meeting. Planning on looking for a new webmaster

Leader forum discussion of the wording of the happy face rides. It was decided no change was necessary and that riders should be able to ride at least 10MPH

Next subject was whether there could be some kind of holiday party. It was mentioned that we may try to do something on June 18th after 4PM. Details to follow

Communications: Facebook. There have been a lot of likes on that particular social medium
Request for events for volunteers
Should we leverage our partnerships with advocacy groups? We will look for another person to join to advocate on our behalf as Steve Vaccaro is very busy.

Coordination: Volunteers create a suggestion “box”

Weekend trips discussed- It was decided that while the Covid-19 Pandemic is lessening, we are not in the position to start with these trips yet.

Leadership Class (Chris and Manny) 11 people have expressed interest with 5 people very interested in a Spring class. So far there was one Zoom class. Full leadership class is being considered.

At present there is a 5 ride requirement to become a leader. During that time there is a probationary period. A question was raised should the potential leaders ride with 5 different leaders? No decision on that idea.

End of meeting 8:40PM
